

WHOOO... is a new YWR for the Mid-South District... ...And Going to the LWML Convention in OMAHA...

Mackenzie Drozd from Our Savior Lutheran Church, Cabot, Arkansas:

YWR Committee member, Mackenzie Drozd, is new to the LWML and attended her first convention as a Young Woman Representative at the Mid-South District 28th Biennial Convention in Memphis, TN. Mackenzie serves as a secretary at her home church in Cabot, AR, and enjoys helping with event planning. She is creative with a bachelor's degree in fine art and an emphasis in graphic design. When she is not busy with a project, she enjoys gardening, baking and sewing costumes.

Erin Isham from St. Paul Lutheran Church, Wartburg, Tennessee:

Erin is a student at King University studying to receive her bachelor's in business administration and has worked in finance for almost six years. She is the 3rd generation in her family in the LWML. Her parents, John and Dana, have been examples to her through their Christian values of supporting and reaching out to those in need in our community. A favorite verses Isaiah 41:10 "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous hand." This brings her comfort, knowing that no matter the situation, He is near.

Michelle Nelson Robbins from Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church, Olive Branch, Mississippi:

Michelle is a lifelong Lutheran who recently moved to MS from Omaha, NE, for work. Michelle and her husband, Paul, are parents to a one-year-old, Everett, and enjoy spending time together at the zoo and football games, walking their two dogs, or traveling to visit loved ones in TN, IA, and MN. She is involved in many church activities, the Junior League, and non-profits that align with her family's vision and values. Faith and love for Christ are their foundation as they serve causes that reflect their commitment to integrity and community. She looks forward to getting to know the LWML ladies and growing together in faith and fellowship.

Rachel Mehl from Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Johnson City, Tennessee:

Rachel is the Vice President of the LWML at her home church in Johnson City, TN. She is married to her husband, Micah, who is the Music Director and Organist at their church. She is a Litigation Paralegal at a law firm and is the founder of an organization that seeks to revitalize the culture with Christian Values. Rachel enjoys playing the tuba in her church's ensemble, singing with a local symphony, reading, and discussing current events. She is also helping her LWML to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of their church by completing 100 hours of service this year and giving other members an opportunity to "Serve the Lord with Gladness."
